AGUA FRIA UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Avondale, Arizona

ADVISOR

Mrs. Sharon Wright

EDITOR

Charlene Walrad

To the Spaniards who first explored this area many years ago, water was probably a very welcome sight. Thus, when the river for which our school is named was discovered, the simple words "Agua Fria" were used to name it.

Agua Fria, which means "cold water," is, in great quantities, blue. Therefore, the annual staff decided that this year, in order to more fully personify our school and its name, the Wickiup would be blue rather than the traditional red and grey.

PAUL BELL

In recent years, two men have been outstanding in their leadership of boys at Agua Fria. Their inspired guidance, thoughtful help, and enthusiastic encouragement have led many boys to bring honor and recognition to our school and its student body. These two men are Mr. Paul Bell and Mr. Orin K. Fulton.

Mr. Bell's influence extends over many, and each of those who have experienced his influence have benefited by it. Though an agriculture teacher by profession, Mr. Bell's interests in helping boys learn to cultivate the resources of America's farmland don't end there. He also sponsors the Agua Fria chapter of the Future Farmers of America, and from under his guidance have emerged such state officers as Ivan Hunt, state president, who graduated in 1962, and Lenny Rhodes, state reporter, who is a senior this year. In state FFA team competitions, his boys have won recognition, too.

. . . TO HONOR THOSE WHO

Mr. Bell is shown here working with some of his students out behind the agriculture shop. His "domain" includes animal pens, the enormous "ag" building behind the arts and crafts building, and the area where the FFA boys grow their crops.

Mr. Orin K. Fulton is a biology teacher at Agua Fria and an excellent one, but it is not just for this that we commend him.

His skilled and zealous coaching of Agua Fria's basketball team has brought recognition to our school in general, but his efforts last year brought honor specifically to us through our basketball team when they won the State Class A Basketball Championship.

His success with last year's team, and boys in general, is due to the fact that he strives to understand each person with whom he comes in contact. He seems able to strike up immediate rapport with almost anyone.

Because of these facts and many more, we have chosen these men, respected and admired by all who know them, to be the ones to whom we dedicate the 1963 Wickiup.

ORIN K. FULTON

HAVE BROUGHT HONOR TO US

Mr. Fulton is shown here demonstrating these qualities which make him so admired and well-liked around our school. His boyish spirit is, perhaps, the quality which leads to the easy camaraderie which develops between his students and himself.

ADMINISTRATION

ABLE LEADERS PERFORM ADMIRABLY

LESTER KELLEY

Lester Kelley, as superintendent, is executive agent of the board of education and has general supervision of all activities under control of the board. He puts into effect policies of the board and when an emergency arises which is not suitably covered by any board policy, he may exercise the full authority of the board, reporting his actions at the next regular meeting.

Mr. Kelley performs all of his many duties admirably, but possibly the most outstanding characteristic of this dedicated administrator is his ability to think of each and every student personally, not just as so many digits in a large number. For this "personal service" and a job well done, we commend Mr. Lester Kelley.

WILBUR SULLIVAN

Our principal, Wilbur Sullivan, keeps the superintendent advised relative to the condition and needs of the school. He administers and supervises the school in such a way as to improve instruction. Another of his duties is to help students and teachers achieve discipline in the school. The principal is directly responsible to the superintendent.

Mr. Sullivan takes his job seriously, making daily rounds of the classrooms and visiting with the teachers to discover and help solve their problems.

If difficulties should ever arise between student and teacher, our principal can be depended on to resolve them.

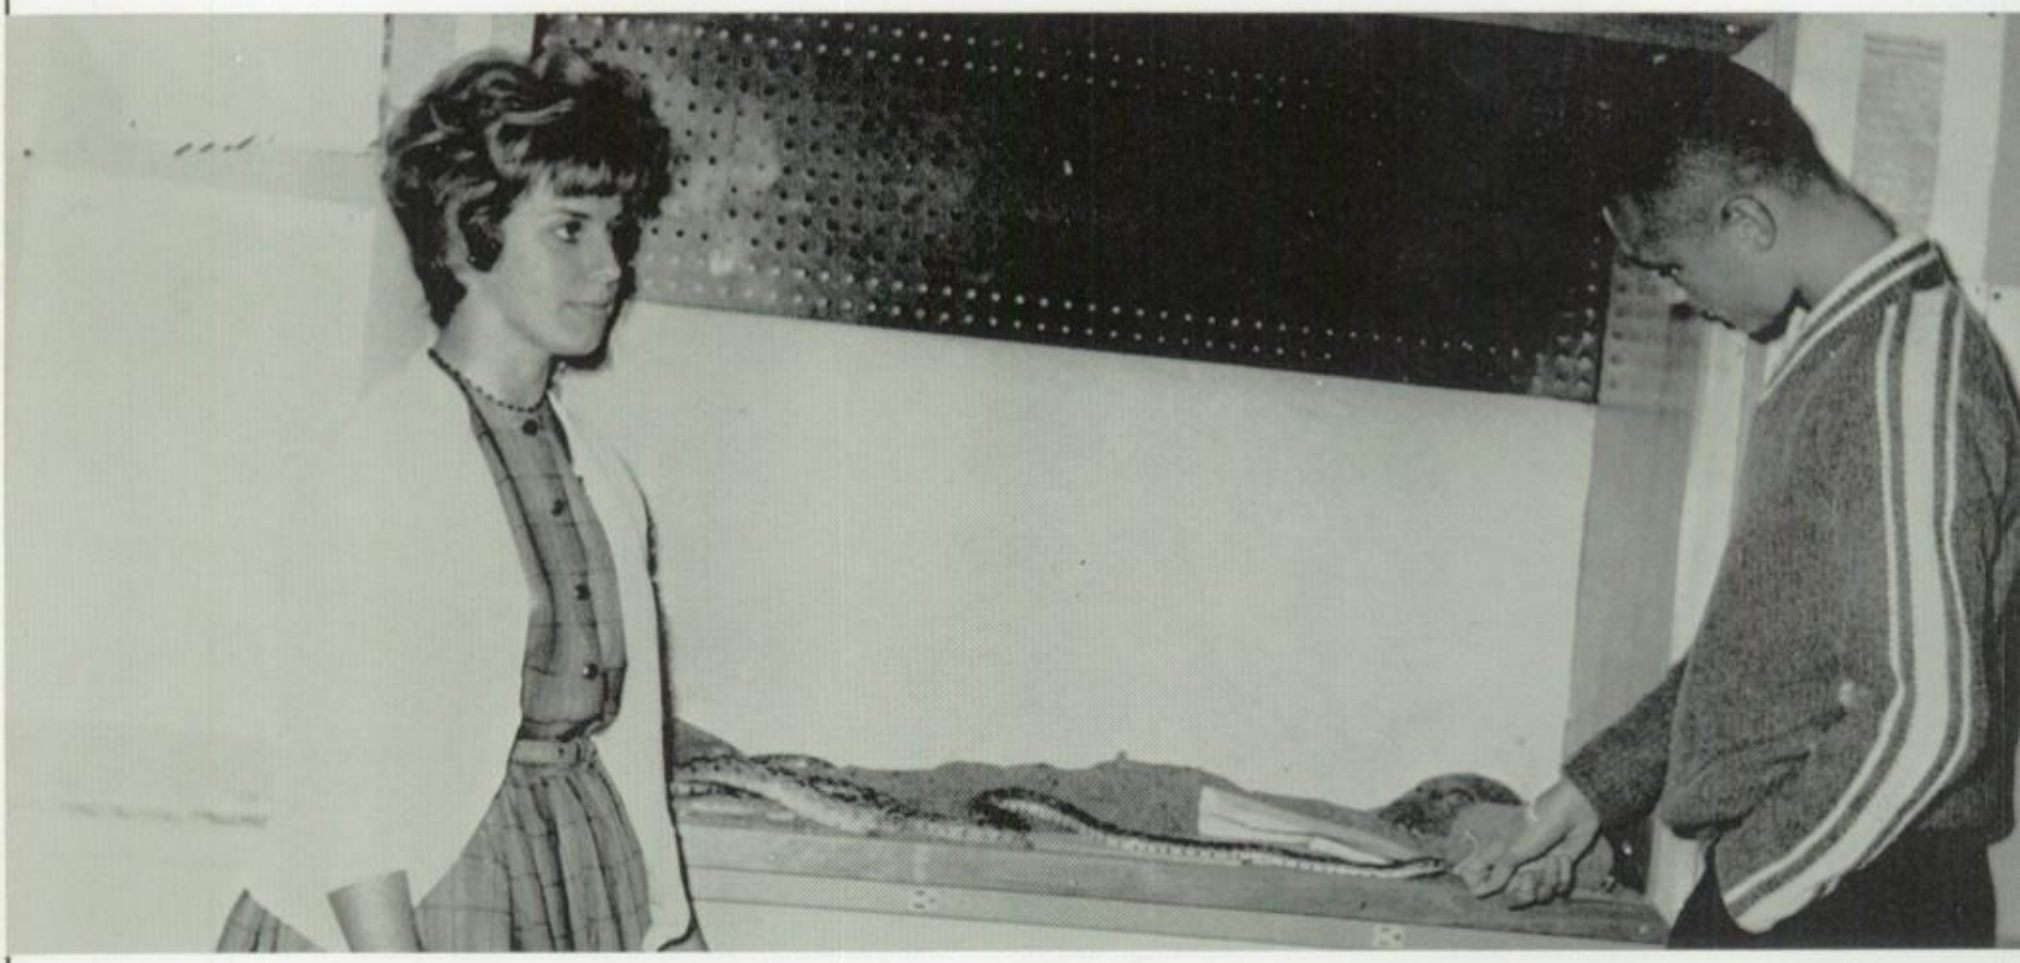
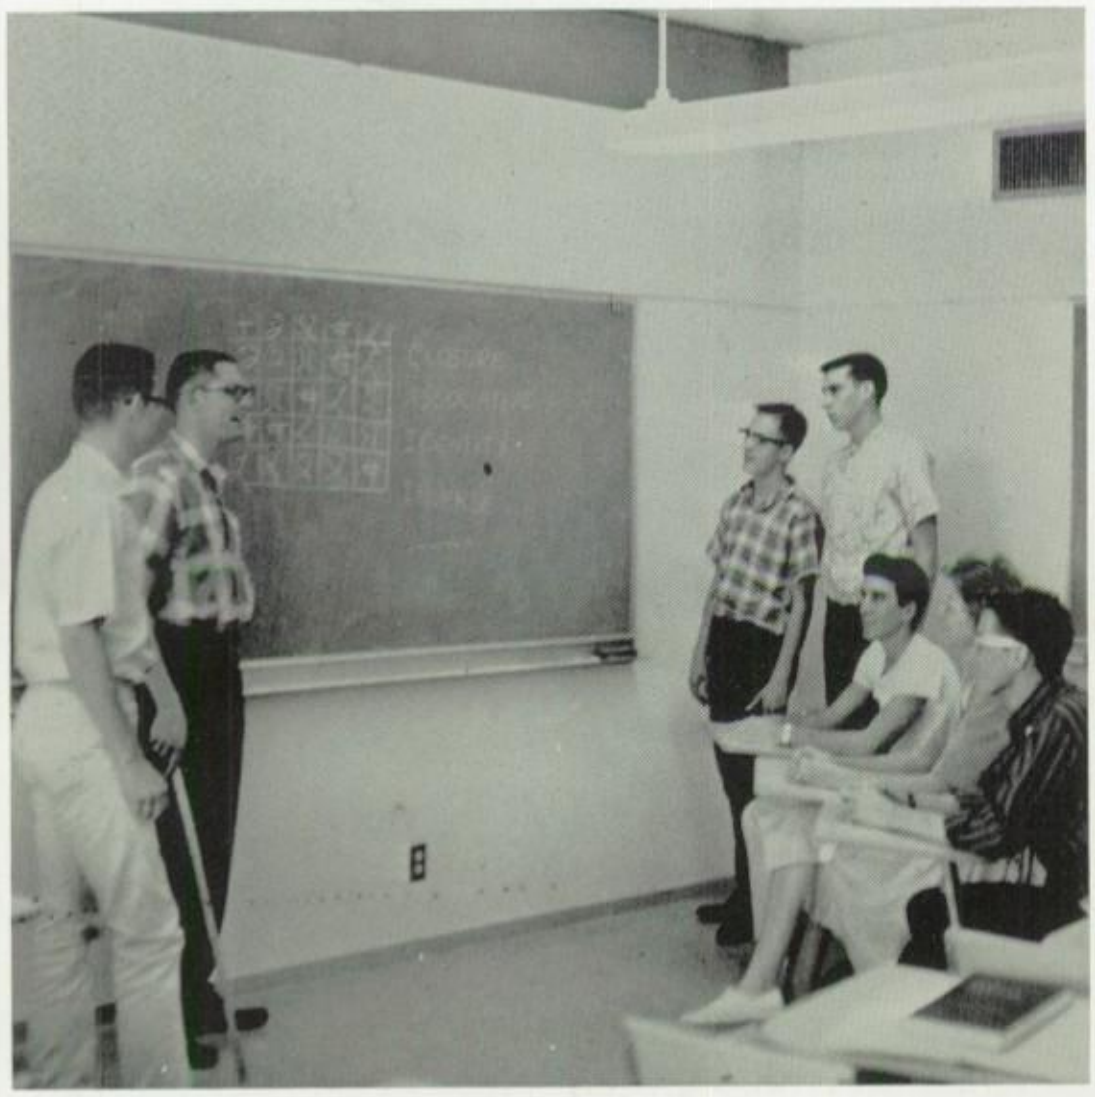
CURRICULUM



MATH AND SCIENCES INVOLVED IN EVERYTHING



Our Math department includes algebra, geometry, and trip. Although only one class is required for graduation, the majority continue on—through bumps and grinds and the satisfaction when you've done a good job and completely mastered the principles, which are sometimes agonizingly simple.

The Biology factor of our science department has two new rooms which it may justly be proud of. They provide the additional room and facilities necessary for our growing Agua Fria.

Auto mechanics teaches boys and girls alike the workings of our most commonly used method of transportation. It's one of the few subjects that can provide the instruction needed for a job immediately upon graduation.

VOCATIONAL SHOPS FUN AND WORK

Agriculture is very popular amongst the boys, and covers what every good farmer should know: soil science, agronomy, entomology, animal husbandry, dairy science, poultry, ag. engineering, and shop and horticulture.

Home Ec. is an infinitely interesting subject around which a lot of girls wisely plan to center their lives. It teaches the arts of sewing, cooking, keeping an orderly and attractive house, bringing up children, and getting along with your husband.

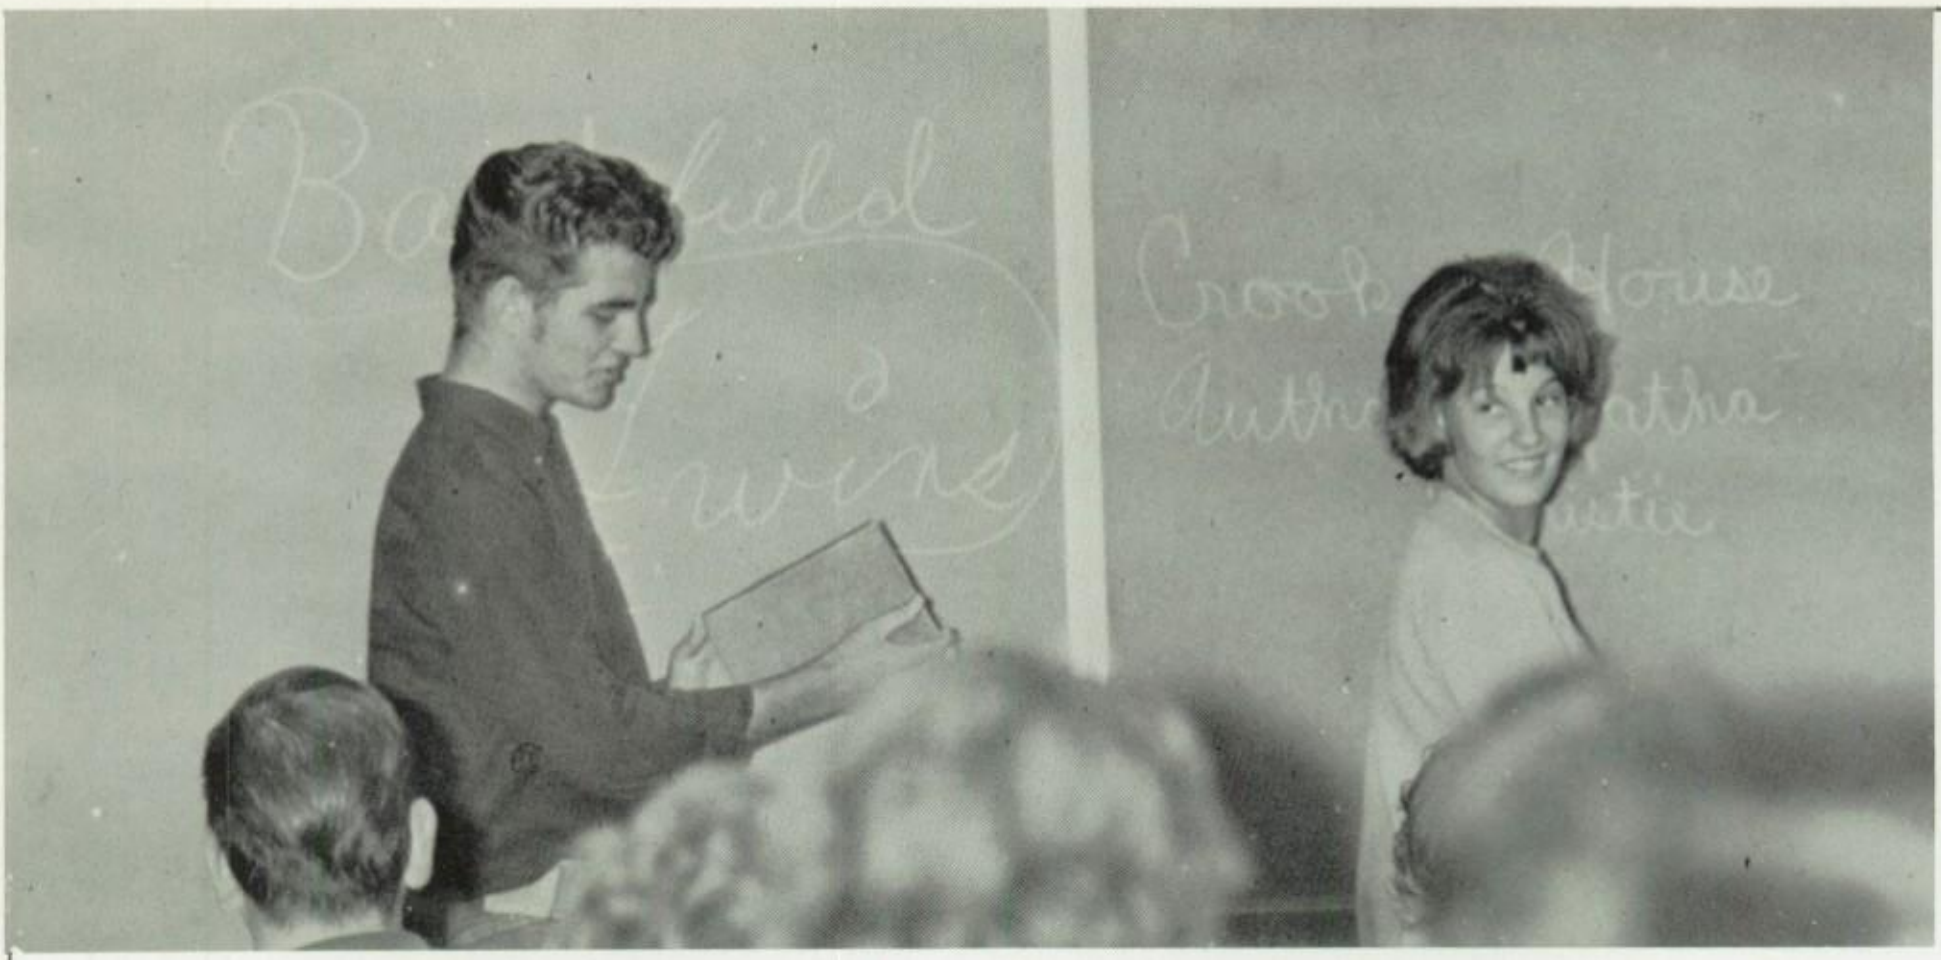
BETTER HOMES AND HEALTHFUL BODIES

P.E. is a strictly fun class, even though required. It teaches a smattering of almost every well-known sport, and stays on them long enough for you to get acquainted with them. It helps keep you healthy and alert, which is something your parents have been trying to get you to be for the last few years.

First year Art students learn, as Mrs. Rayner says, "How to draw." The cover perspection, lettering, figure drawing, and painting. Second year students have an extended program of the above mentioned, and experiment with sculpture and three-dimensional subjects, and cover about two terms of commercial art. The big moment of the year comes during the National Scholastic Art Competition.

ART AND PHOTOGRAPHY ALSO INTERESTING HOBBIES

Photography is very necessary to both the paper and the annual, and is an interesting hobby as well. The advanced Photography class takes pictures for the annual and the paper.



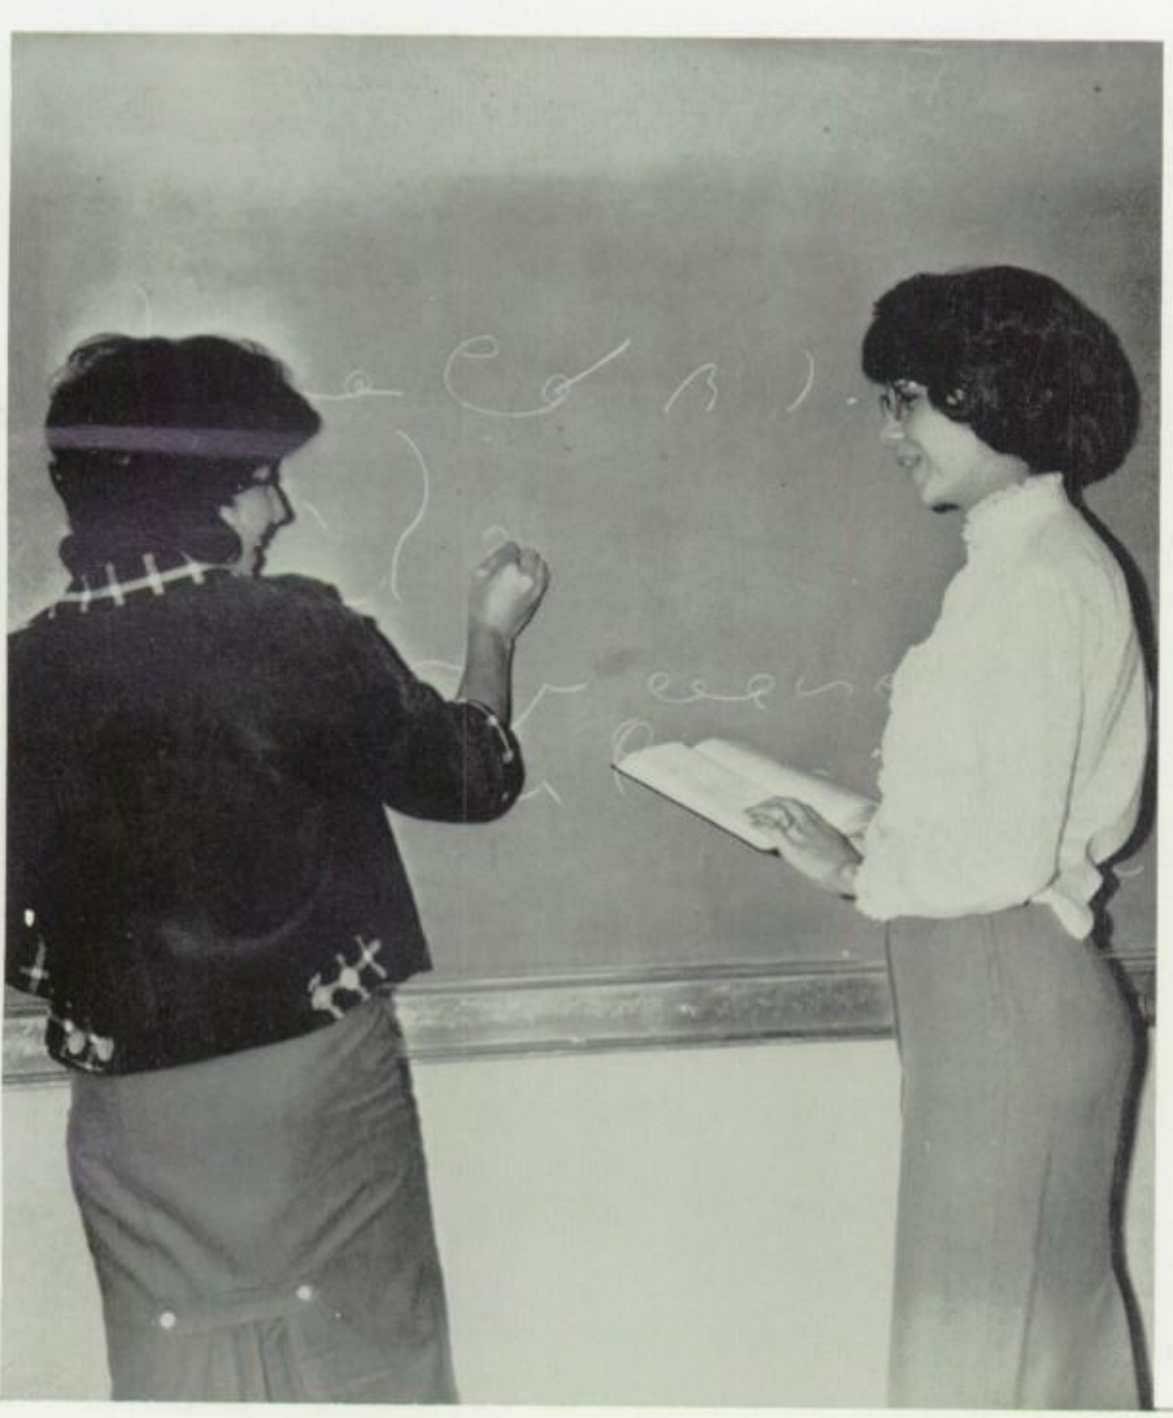
English is a subject which is wisely required, for no successful person could possibly succeed without it. It provides the basic step for other languages as well.

THROUGH LANGUAGES SPEAK ALL . . .

Two new wings have been added to our Foreign Language department this year. One, the beautiful and useful language lab, which permits the teacher to attend to each student individually. Two, a very interesting and worthwhile language—German. This language is the parent of sixty per cent of all American words.

Classes of sociology study world problems, while world history creates interest in ancient and modern civilizations. American history teaches of the birth and growth of our nation; the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, from whence our country has sprung. Civics instructs us in the matter of becoming responsible citizens.

WISE CITIZENS BUILD A STRONGER COUNTRY



Typing and shorthand, important components of the framework of business organization, are offered in two year doses. First year shorthand students concentrate on Gregg theory and speed-building, while second year students use these skills in actual typewriting transcriptions. Bookkeeping classes provide for financial proficiency. Business students develop "Salable skill" which will afford them valuable positions in tomorrow's business world.

STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS —

Attending the MENC All-Conference Band and Chorus Meet in Bakersfield, California are: Caren Coor, Joyce Judy, Melanie Bush, and Lynn Lorenz. Delegates were first chosen by students, then by Mrs. Putnam's recommendation. The delegates' names were sent to Bakersfield, California where three judges chose the winners by the number of years of music they have had, and the honors they have received in music. Delegates are chosen from the five western states of Arizona, Hawaii, Utah, Nevada, and California.

Delegates for All-State Band and Choir perfrom a solo at Tempe, where three judges decide on the winners.

Members of the Agua Fria Band Are: ROW 1: Barbara Coleman, Frank Romero, Brenda Jennings, Fay Hollingshead, Millicent Raleigh, Cindy Harris, Susan Drake, and Caren Coor. ROW 2: Steven Szczepkowski, Charles Iron, Nancy Alley, Randy Lampus, Elaine Peterson, Cindy Farris, Junior Cons, Linda Boydston, Ricky Rhodes, Oscar Nandin, and Diane Gregory. ROW 3: James Raleigh, Geoffrey Lawrence, Brenda Wood, Raymond Sanchez, Diane Barron, Tom Mann, Cynthia White, Arthur Lawhorn, Don Young, Ramon Acevedo, Dale Coon, Gary Ritzler, Lee Roy Allen, Norman Byassee. STANDING: Mike Case, Judy Coor, Susan Hawkins—Head Majorette, Pam Busey, Rusty Tillman, Sandy Gault, Vicki Walmsley, Don Fletcher, Bobby Moore, Pat Summers.

DESERT HOWL MEETS DEADLINES

Paul Luellig and Terri Sharkey, co-editors of the Desert Howl, work on their page layouts.

Brenda Jennings and Junior Cons work on the stories assigned to them.

Frank Vallero, Chuy Moreno, Charlene Walrad, Jeff Franklin, Zeke Ramos, Sharon Goodwin, and Richard Mathias look over an issue of the paper.

Rusty Tillman, sports editor, Jon Quass, photographer, Darrell Beck, business manager, and Larry Jacobsen, page one editor, work on their sections of the paper.

Putting out a newspaper is a job that requires time, thought, and know-how. The Desert Howl improved as the staff's knowledge increased, and some of the best papers ever were put out.

WICKIUP STAFF USES NEW IDEAS

Charlene Walrad, editor, looks over the annual layout.

Diane Burns, Donna Ford, and Benny Garcia discuss their layouts and look over their pictures.

Pam Busey, Zeke Ramos, and Rosemary Fields, business manager, display a poster advertising the Wickiup.

Linda Rothe, Paul Luellig, and Terri Sharkey work on their sections.

Putting out the Wickiup is the sole job of the annual staff. This job includes planning layouts, assigning pictures, writing copy, and meeting a definite deadline. The staff worked hard to produce an annual full of new ideas and improvements.

Richard Mathias, Tony Herrara, and Frank Bejarano, photographers, deserve credit for most of the pictures in the annual.

FFA EXHIBITS ANIMALS AT FAIR,

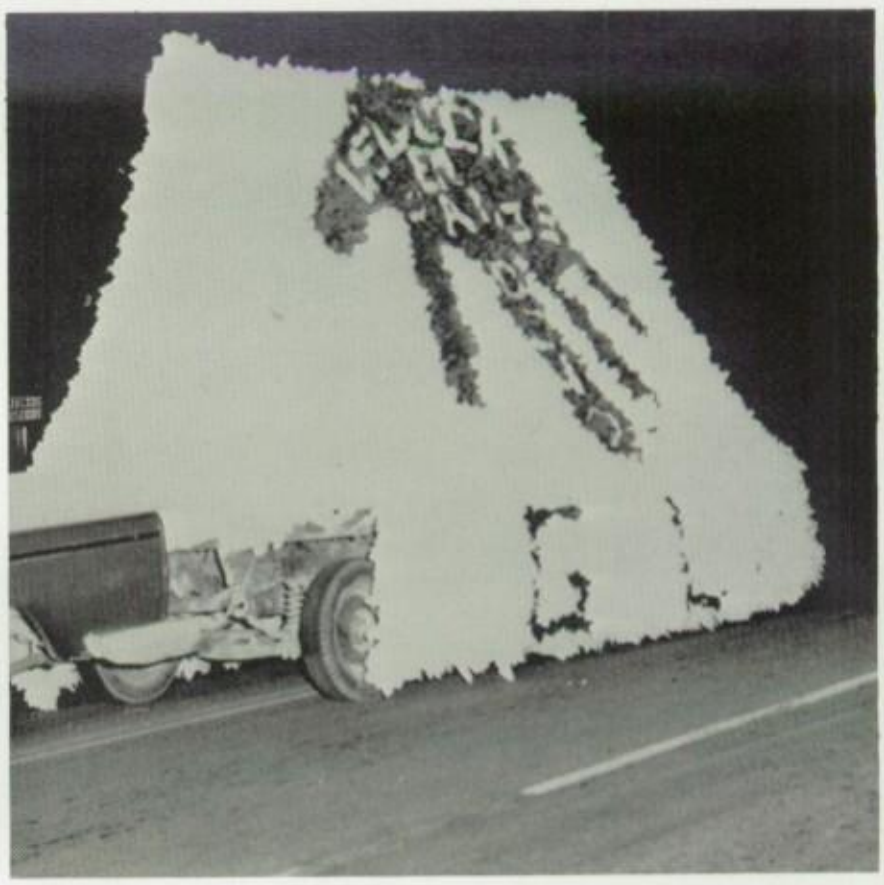
Members depict cotton picking in a scene of their assembly.

Cotton picking, the all-girls party, a slogan sucker sale, a homecoming float, and the annual formal were a few of the activities of Girls League, one of the largest organizations on campus. The girls worked on the activities to earn points so they could attend the annual camping trip.

Members pick cotton early in the morning to earn points for the annual camping trip.



"We'll lick 'em hands down" brings out the sucker sales slogan.

ORIENTAL PARADISE' THEME OF FORMAL

FHA oficers are Mary Bob Ross, president; Karen Pigg, vice-president; Linda Lee, secretary; and Rosemary King, treasurer.

Art students work on the mural for the formal.

An active organization on campus is the chapter of the nation-wide F.H.A. The girls work for points which entitles them to junior, chapter, and the ultimate state degrees. They sponsor bake sales, after game dances, Daddy Date Night, and an annual girl-ask-boy formal. The theme of this year's formal was "Oriental Paradise."

"Little girls" line up for FHA initiation.

Barbara Roach, last year's FHA queen, crowns Betty Kay McCullough.

The council members attend the club meetings and perform the duties assigned to them.

LETTERMEN PACE BASEBALL TEAM

The Agua Fria Owls baseball team, managed by Charles Ellsworth, started the 1963 season by traveling to Casa Grande Saturday, March 9. The Owls' baseball team, a strong ball team, boasted four pitchers ready for action at any time. Five hitters had cleared the .300 mark. Before the season started, Rusty Tillman broke his arm and was missed at 3rd base. Nevertheless, the Owls were a tough team to beat.

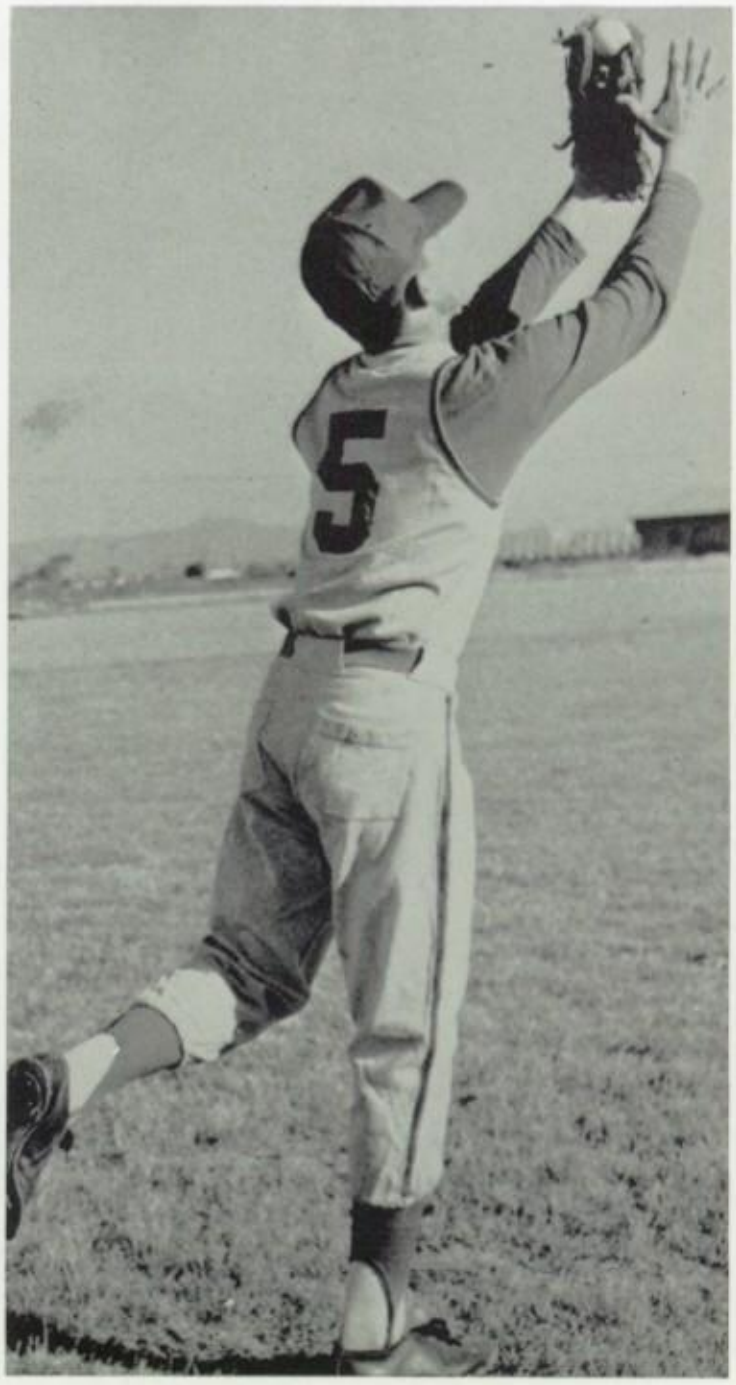
Owl hurlers ready for season opener. These four hurlers are expected to see plenty of action. Reading left to right are Chuck Deahl, Frank Vallero, Dennis Prunty, and Curt Washington.



Benny Garcia, Owl center fielder, makes an over-the-head catch on fly ball hit during practice session.

Arthur Marquez, J.V. baseball coach, Chuck Ellsworth, Varsity baseball coach, and Alvin Schireman, Freshman baseball coach, talk about forthcoming game.

UNDERCLASSMEN STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE

FRESHMEN

The Junior Varsity baseball team picture was not taken because when pictures were taken in the spring, the J.V. team was still working out with the varsity baseball team. The J.V. team was a fine group according to Mr. Arthur Marquez, who managed the J.V. team through the tough '63 campaign. The team had good hitting to go along with their fine pitching staff.

Chuy Moreno, Frank Vallaro, and Dennis Prunty start practicing early in the season in order to be in top condition for the season opener against Casa Grande.
